ORAL JUDGEMENT

(Per : MR.JUSTICE M.R.CALLA)

It is reported that all the respondents have been served.

We have gone through the impugned order passed by the learned single Judge. We are in full agreement with the view taken by the learned single Judge that the respondent No.1, who is the main respondent against whom the relief has been sought, is neither any State nor other authority or agency or instrumentality of the State within the meaning of Article 12 of the Constitution of India. The learned single Judge has rightly rejected the contentions which were raised to the effect that even if Respondent No.1 is not a State, directions should yet be given in favour of the petitioner. We do not find any reason to interfere with the order passed by the learned single Judge. There is no substance in this Appeal. The same is hereby dismissed. Notice discharged. No order as to costs.
